

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I have gone from receiving a dozen calls a day to zero and I would like to keep it that way. Don't mess with a law that is finally doing something to make millions of lives better. The calls are annoying.